Workshop design and Group Work methodology
Introduction

› Daniel Dietrich, DPADM consultant for OGD Project
› Senior Researcher and Consultant on Open Government, Open Data, Transparency, Accountability and Citizen Engagement
› DPADM is the Division of Public Administration and Development Management of the UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UNDESA)
Agenda

‣ Objectives
‣ Structure of the 3 day workshop
  – Presentations
  – Panel discussions
  – Working Groups

‣ Expected Outputs
Objectives

‣ The 3-day Capacity Development Workshop (CDW) will aim at sensitizing high level authorities, engaging with the key Open Government Data (OGD) ecosystem stakeholders, and providing sufficient inputs for the preparation of an national OGD Action Plan.
Structure Day one

Day 1 - The Benefits of Open Data for Bangladesh

1.1 Opening remarks and the importance of OGD
1.2 Plenary Session I: Introductions to OGD
1.3 Panel Discussion I: Opportunities and Challenges for Bangladesh
1.4 Group Work Sessions & Themes

- Group 1: National OGD Strategy and Regulatory framework
- Group 2: Environmental Development
- Group 3: Social Development
- Group 4: Economic Development

1.5 Group Work Concurrent Session 1 - Brainstorming
Structure Day two

Day 2 - Open Data for Sustainable Development

2.1 Plenary Session II - Open Data Around the World
2.2 Group Work Concurrent Session 2 - Action Lines
2.3 Panel Discussion II: How would a sustainable OGD strategy look?
2.4 Group Work Concurrent Session 3 - Strengths, Weaknesses and Capacity Gaps
Structure Day three

Day 3 - Open Bangladesh 2020

3.1 Plenary Session III - OGD Action Plan and Roadmap
3.2 Group Work Concurrent Session 4 - Implementation
3.3 Concluding session

› Presentation on Draft OGD Strategy for Bangladesh
› Open Discussion on plan and Strategy
› Making the action plan operational
Plenary Sessions

Plenary Session I - Introductions to Open Government Data

Plenary Session II - Open Data Around the World

Plenary Session III - OGD Action Plan and Roadmap
Panel discussions

Short statements from

† Government
† Civil Society
† Private Sector

Followed by interactive discussion

† Panel I : Opportunities & Challenges for OGD in BG
† Panel II : How would a sustainable OGD strategy look?
Working Groups

- Group 1: National OGD Strategy and Regulatory framework
- Group 2: Environmental Development
- Group 3: Social Development
- Group 4: Economic Development

Session 1 - Brainstorming
Session 2 - Action Lines
Session 3 - Strengths, Weaknesses and Capacity Gaps
Session 4 - Implementation

- Presentation of Results
Outputs

› Better understanding of OGD

– what it is
– why it is important
– how it can be done

› Dialogue on how OGD can be useful for Bangladesh
› Input for draft Action Plan
› Agree on next steps
Thank you!

- Daniel Dietrich, DPADM consultant for OGD Project
  - ddie@ddie.me / @ddie
- UNDESA OGD Project
- OGDCE Guidelines
- This Workshop
  - http://www.unpan.org/OGD-NCDW-Bangladesh
- These Slides