

Visa Process for Persons attending UN Symposium

Please be advised that the visa process for persons attending the UN SIDS Symposium is as follows:

a) Holders of Diplomatic and Official passports	No Visa is required for holders of Diplomatic Passports. On an exceptional basis, visas will not be required for persons with Official passports; however, Official Passport holders should have an invitation letter.
b) All Others requiring a visa*	(i) Persons attending the 2017 UN SIDS Symposium should apply for visas at The Bahamas consular offices - http://mofa.gov.bs/about-us/overseas-missions/ or the nearest British High Commission/Embassy (ii) Persons, who are unable to apply at one of the above offices, will receive an entry Visa upon their arrival in Nassau. THIS IS A SPECIAL EXCEPTION FOR THE PARTICIPANTS OF THE SYMPOSIUM. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Persons must present a valid passport, and the letter of invitation. Persons without a letter of invitation should contact the Conference Secretariat immediately so that they may be provided with one.- Participants are responsible for obtaining on their own, any transit visas necessary

* A list of the Visa Requirements for foreign visitors to The Bahamas may be found at <http://mofa.gov.bs/visiting-the-bahamas/>